

Dear colleagues,

I hope you are doing great!

We are happy to inform you that Brazilian Journal of Production Engineering has released regular issue - Volume 3:3 (2017) in the month of December. The success so far has been attributed to the kind and considerate effort of our editors and authors.

For more information, you can read articles from our current issue.

We are pleased to invite you to kindly contribute a write-up based on the field of your research interest for our upcoming issue.

You can submit us your write-up either as a research article or review article or short communication or case report or whatever suits you best.

If you are interested, please submit your article on or before November 15, 2017 to the EM system or send directly to an e-mail attachment to the Editorial Office at: revistabjpe@gmail.com

Anticipating your reply,

Have a nice day!

Cordially,
Prof. Dr. Rodrigo Randow
Journal Editor
